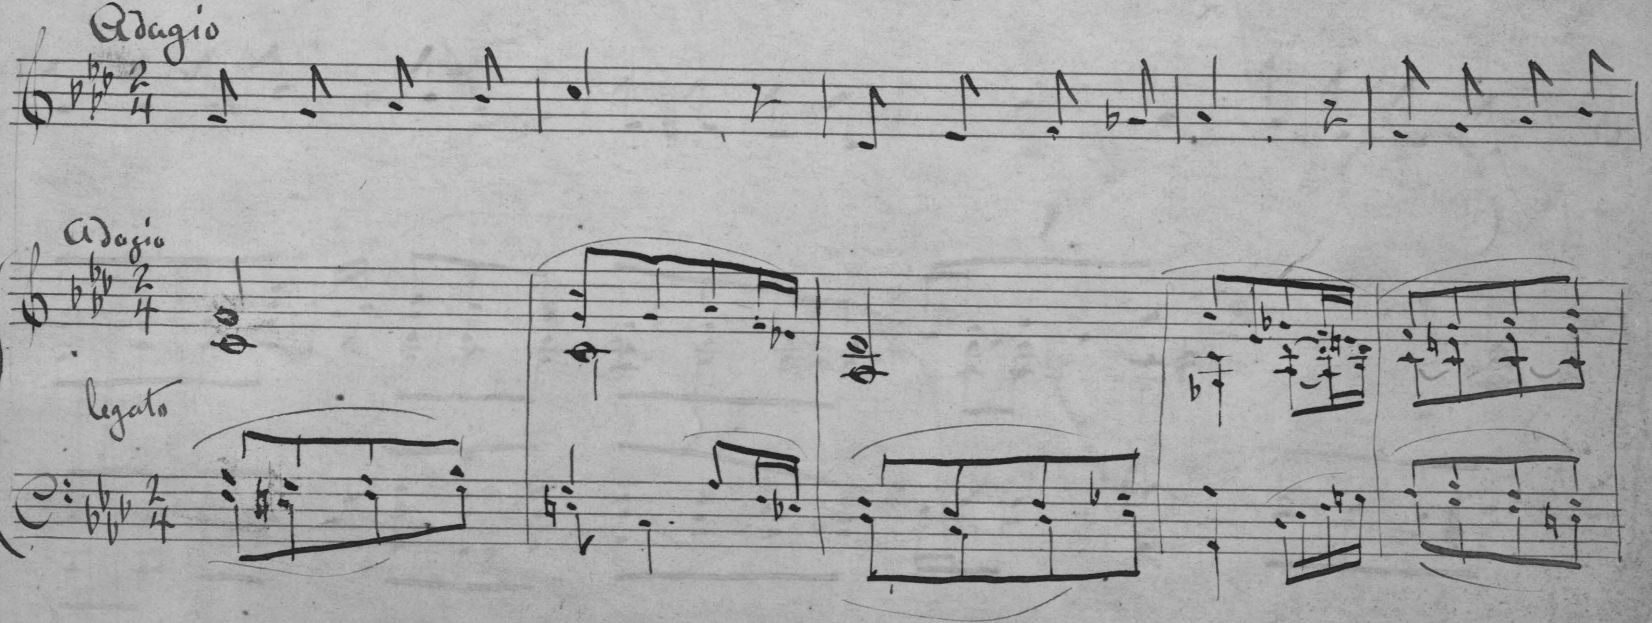
Songs.

Wm Schuyler

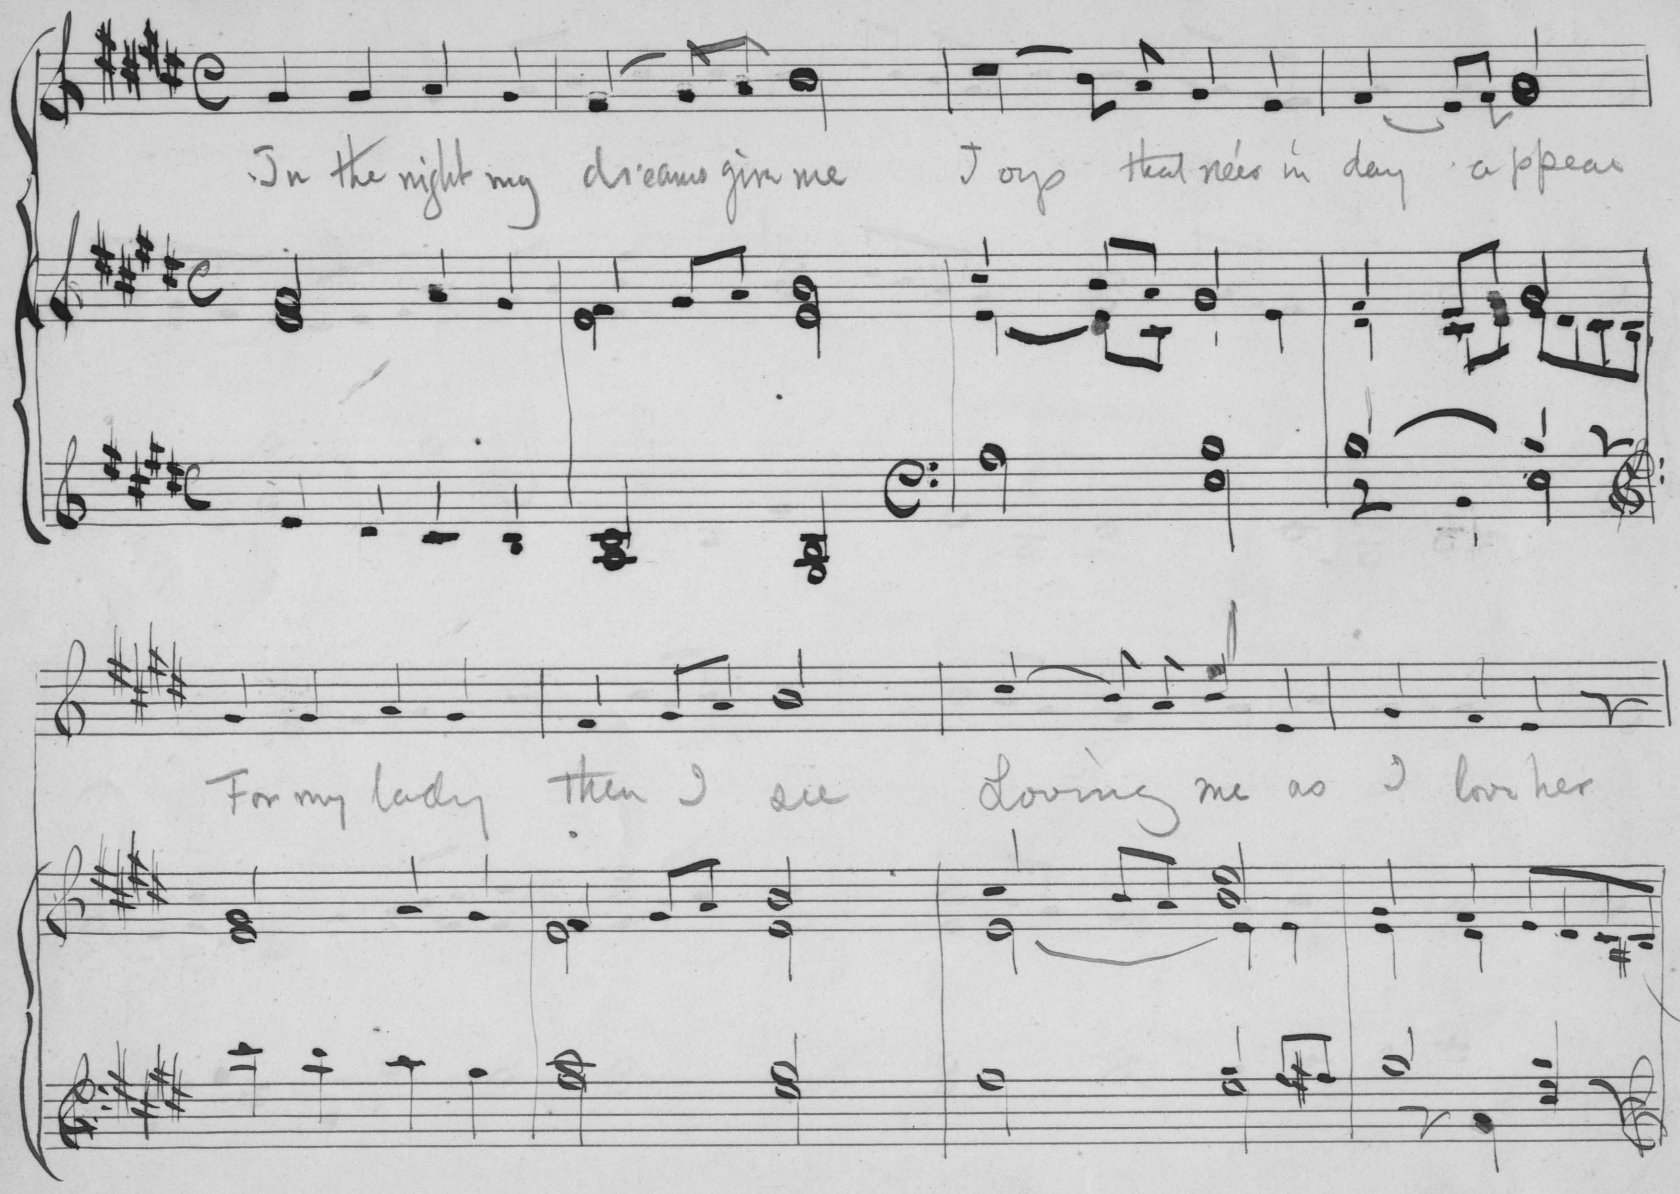
Song. Cycle. "On the Lake"

No 1 Morning.

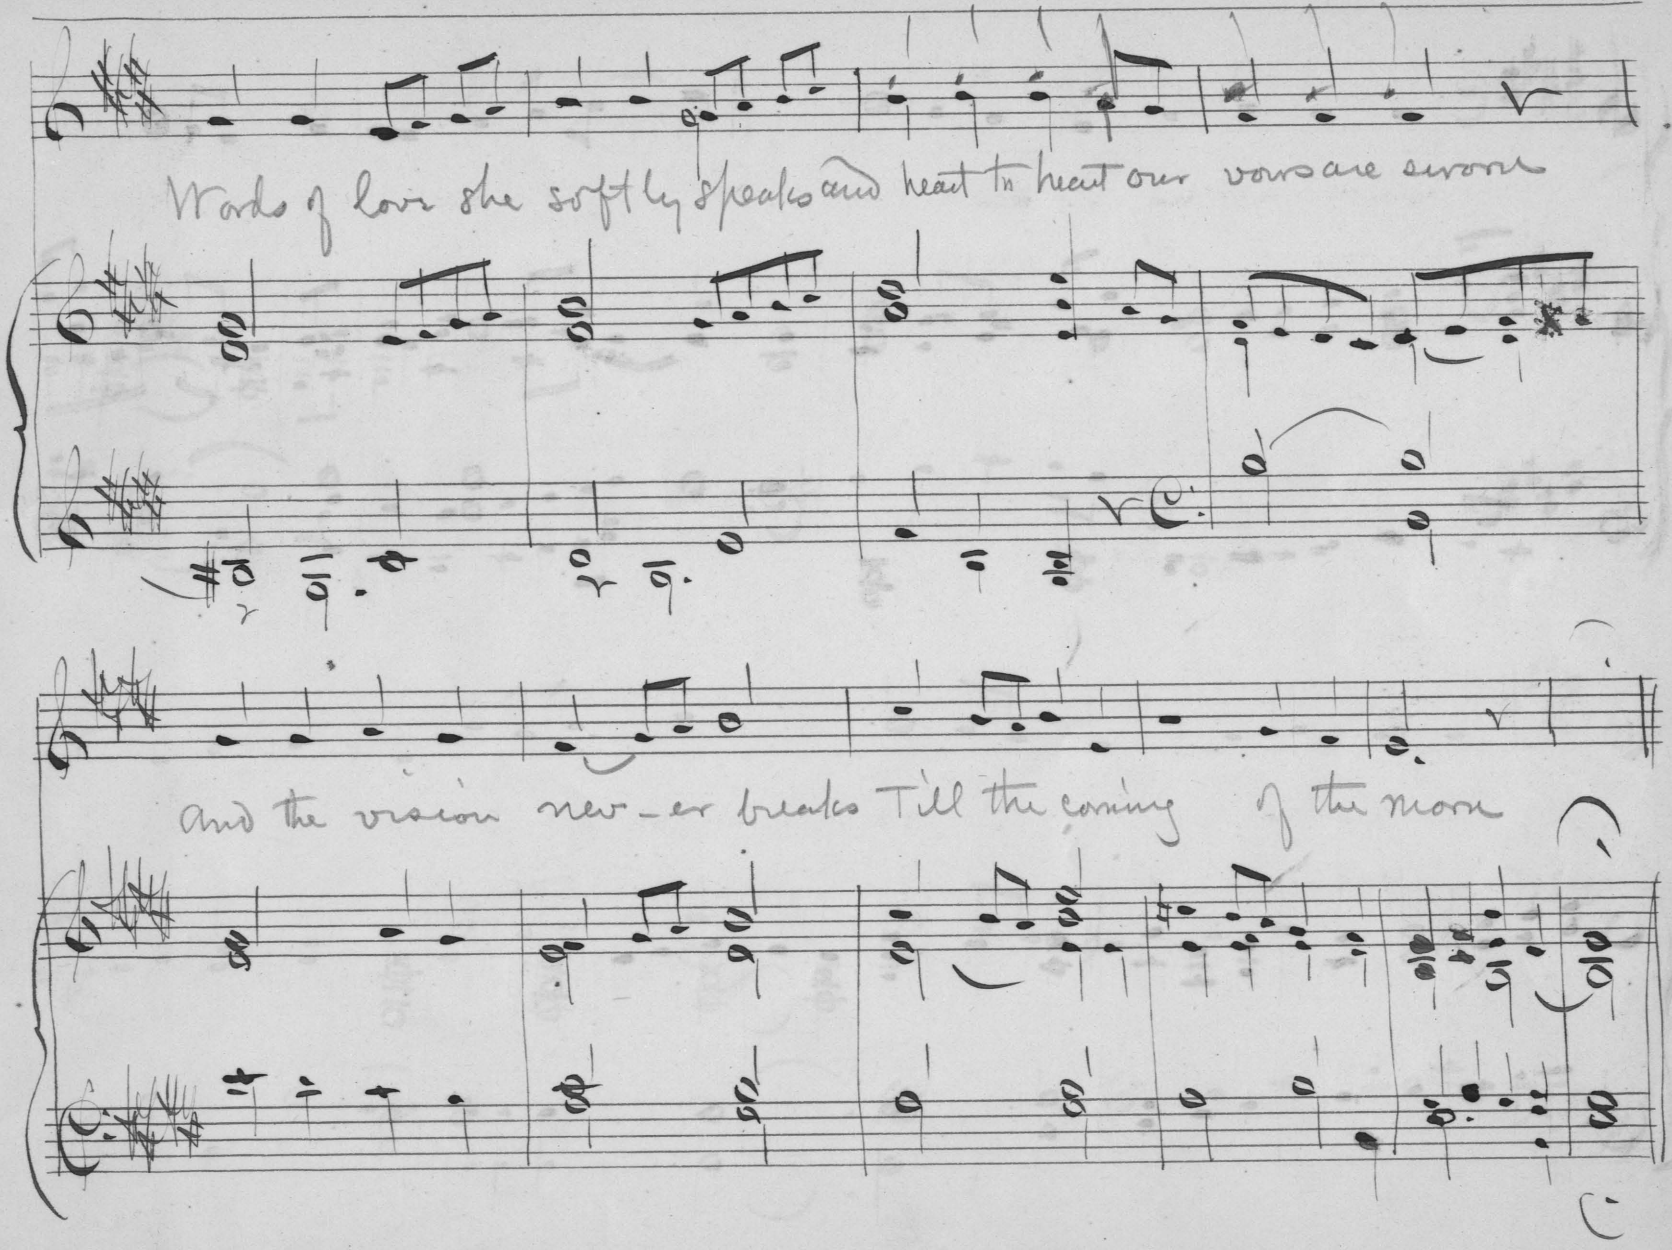


"On the Lake" - Morning. (continued)

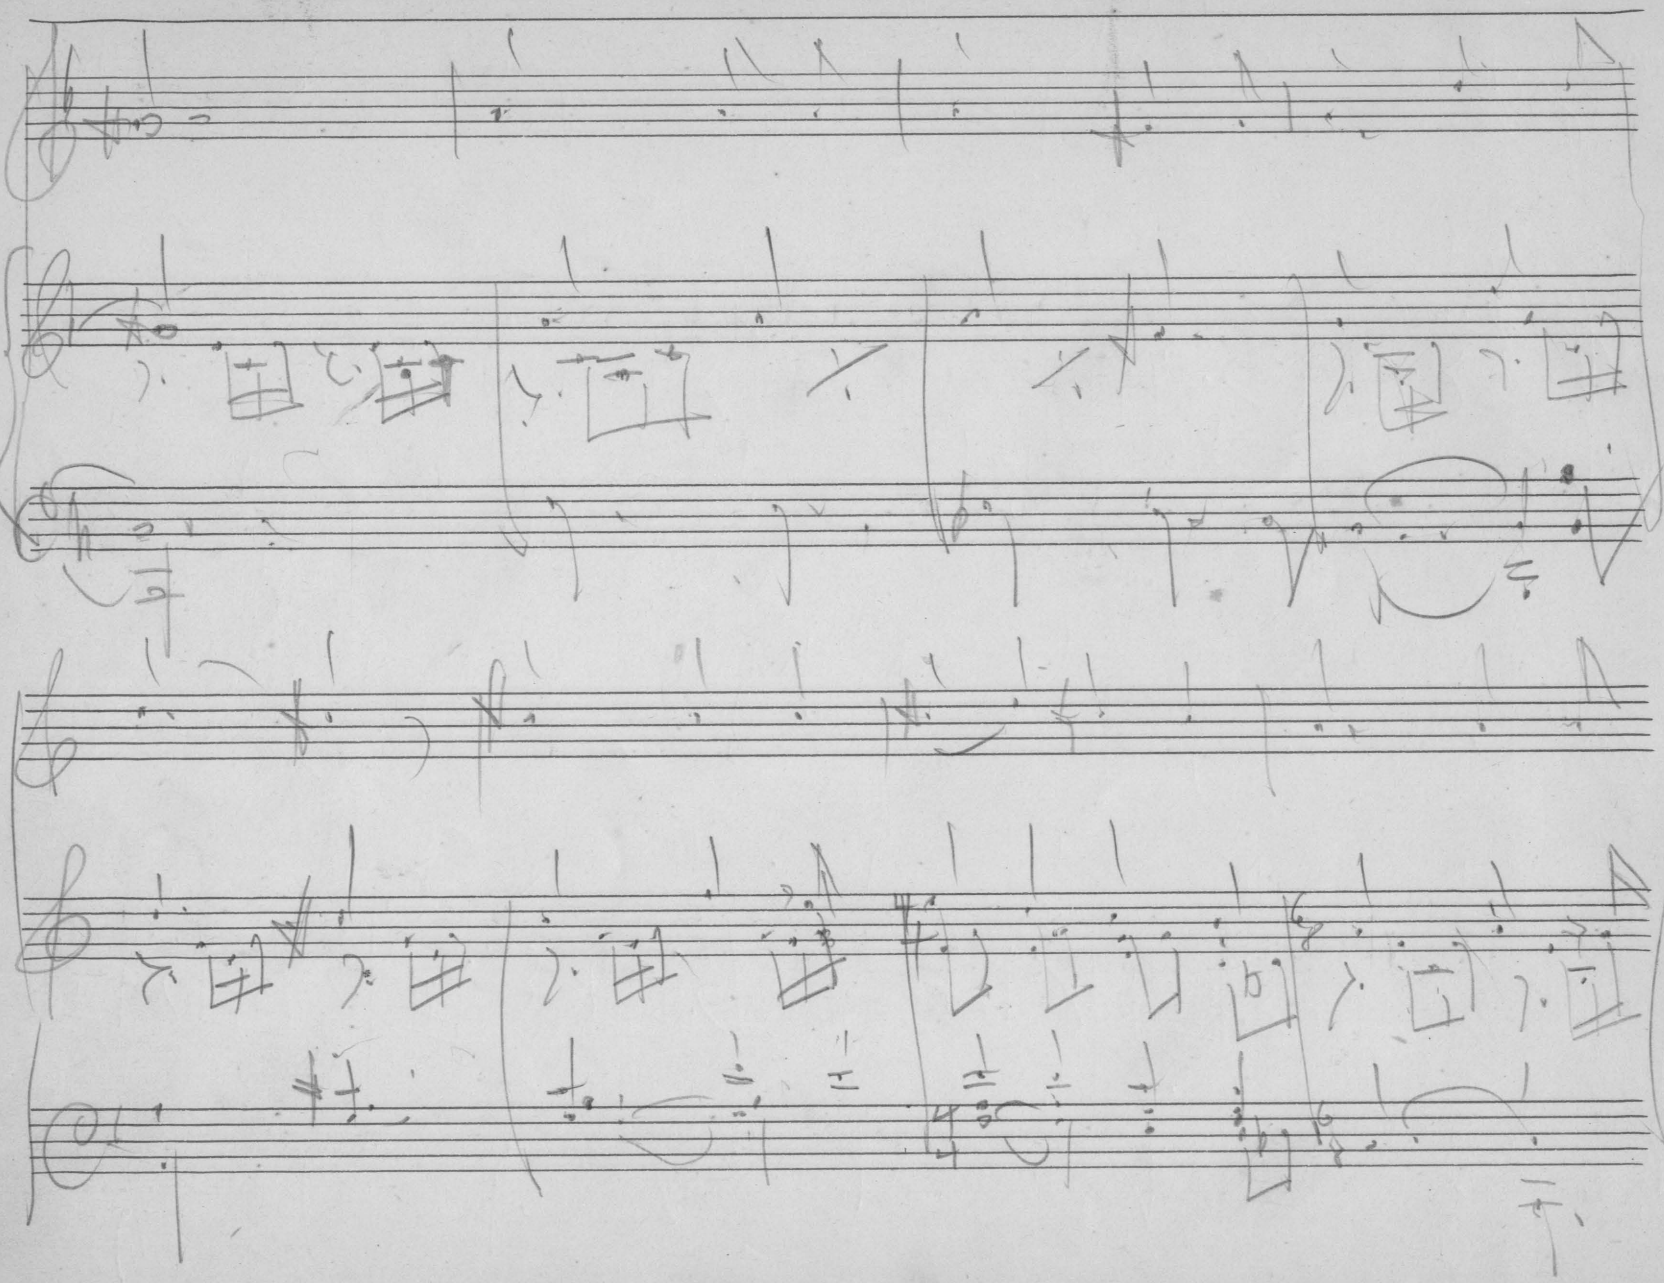
it molto



In the night my dreams give me
Joys that vées in day appear
For my lady then I see
Loving me as I love her



Words of love she softly speaks and heart to heart our vows are sworn
And the vision nev-er breaks Till the coming of the morn



2
Fermate nicht ausführen
Auf gleiche Weise
A B A.
A

f.
A B Bass
B

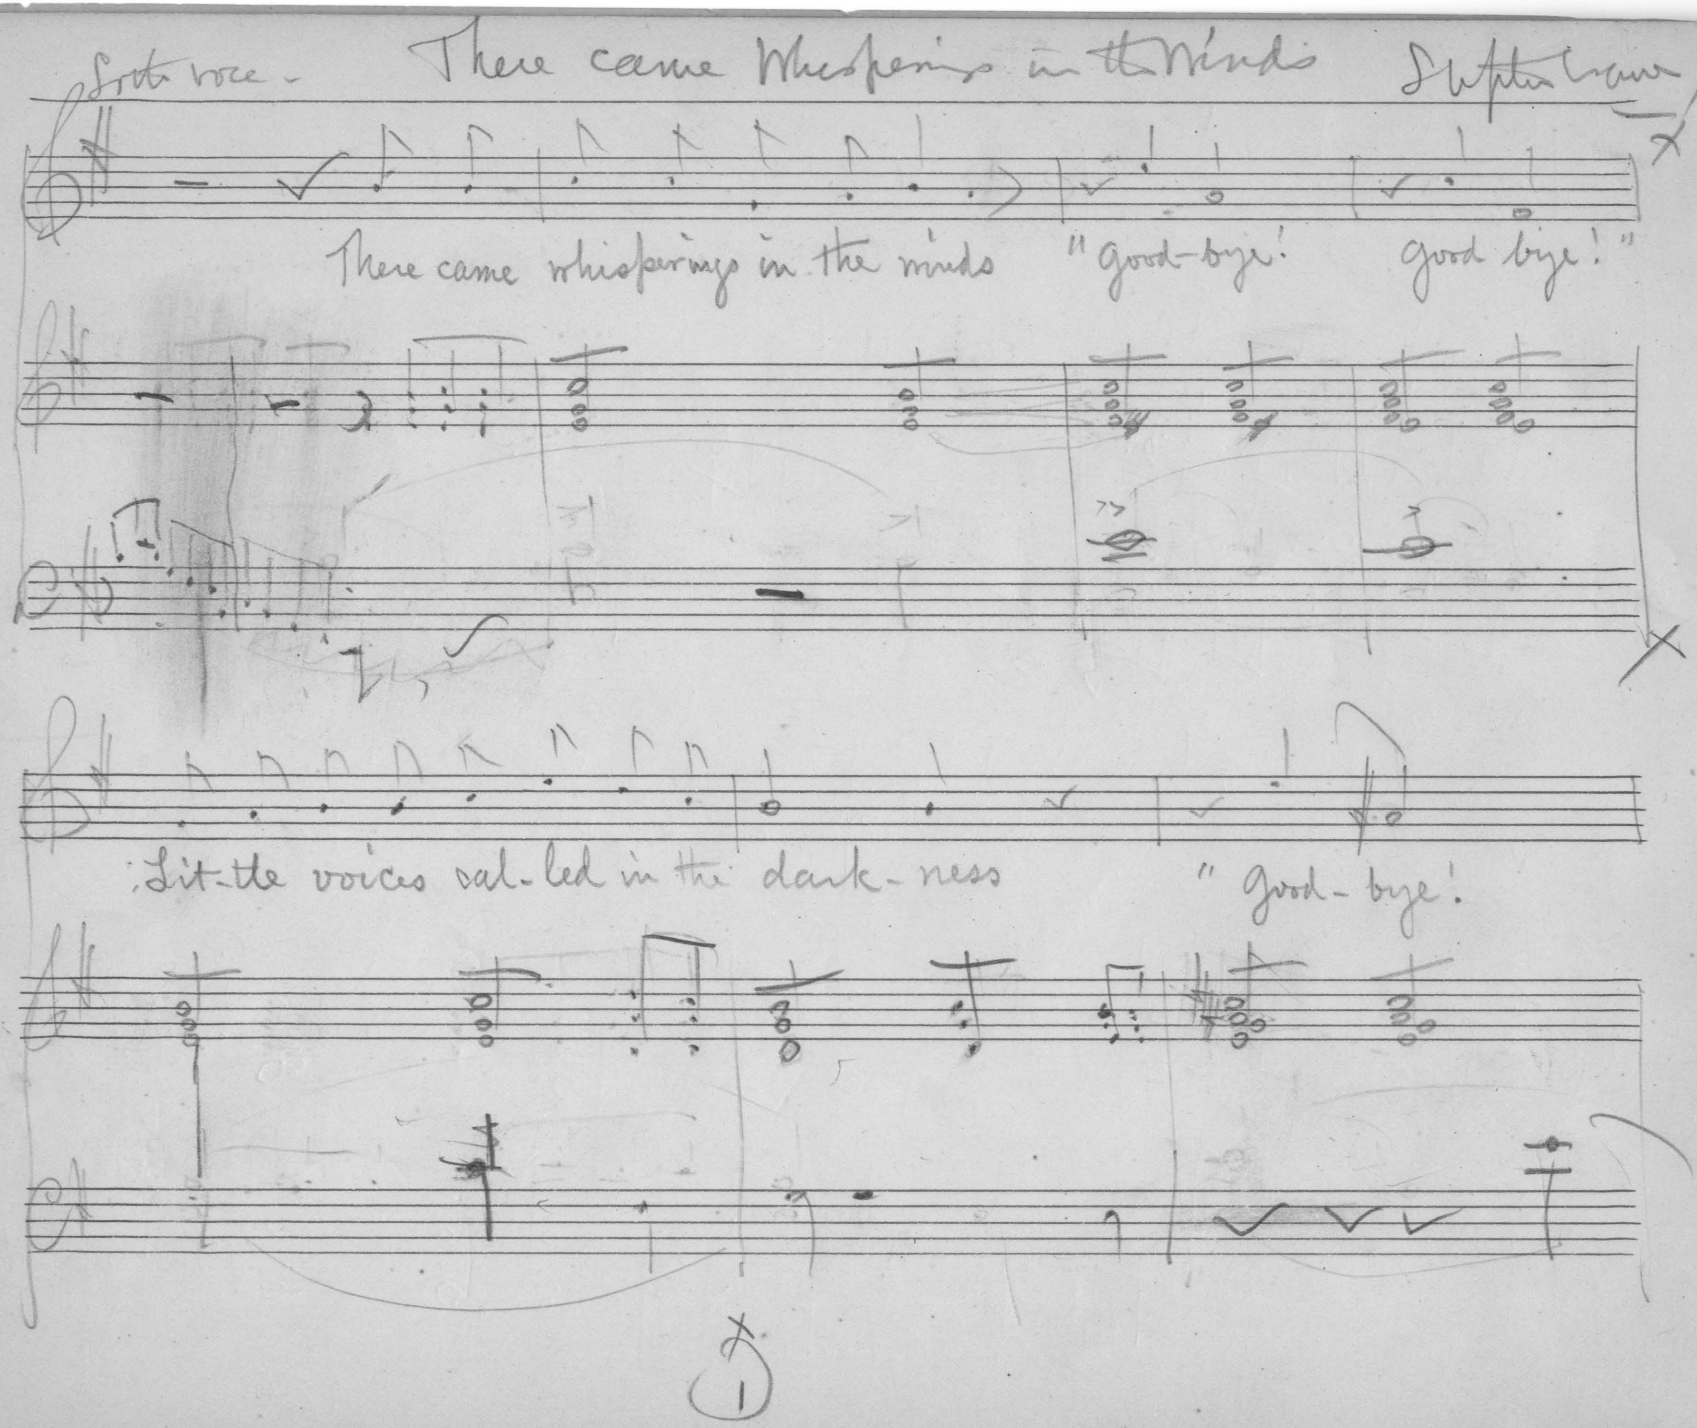
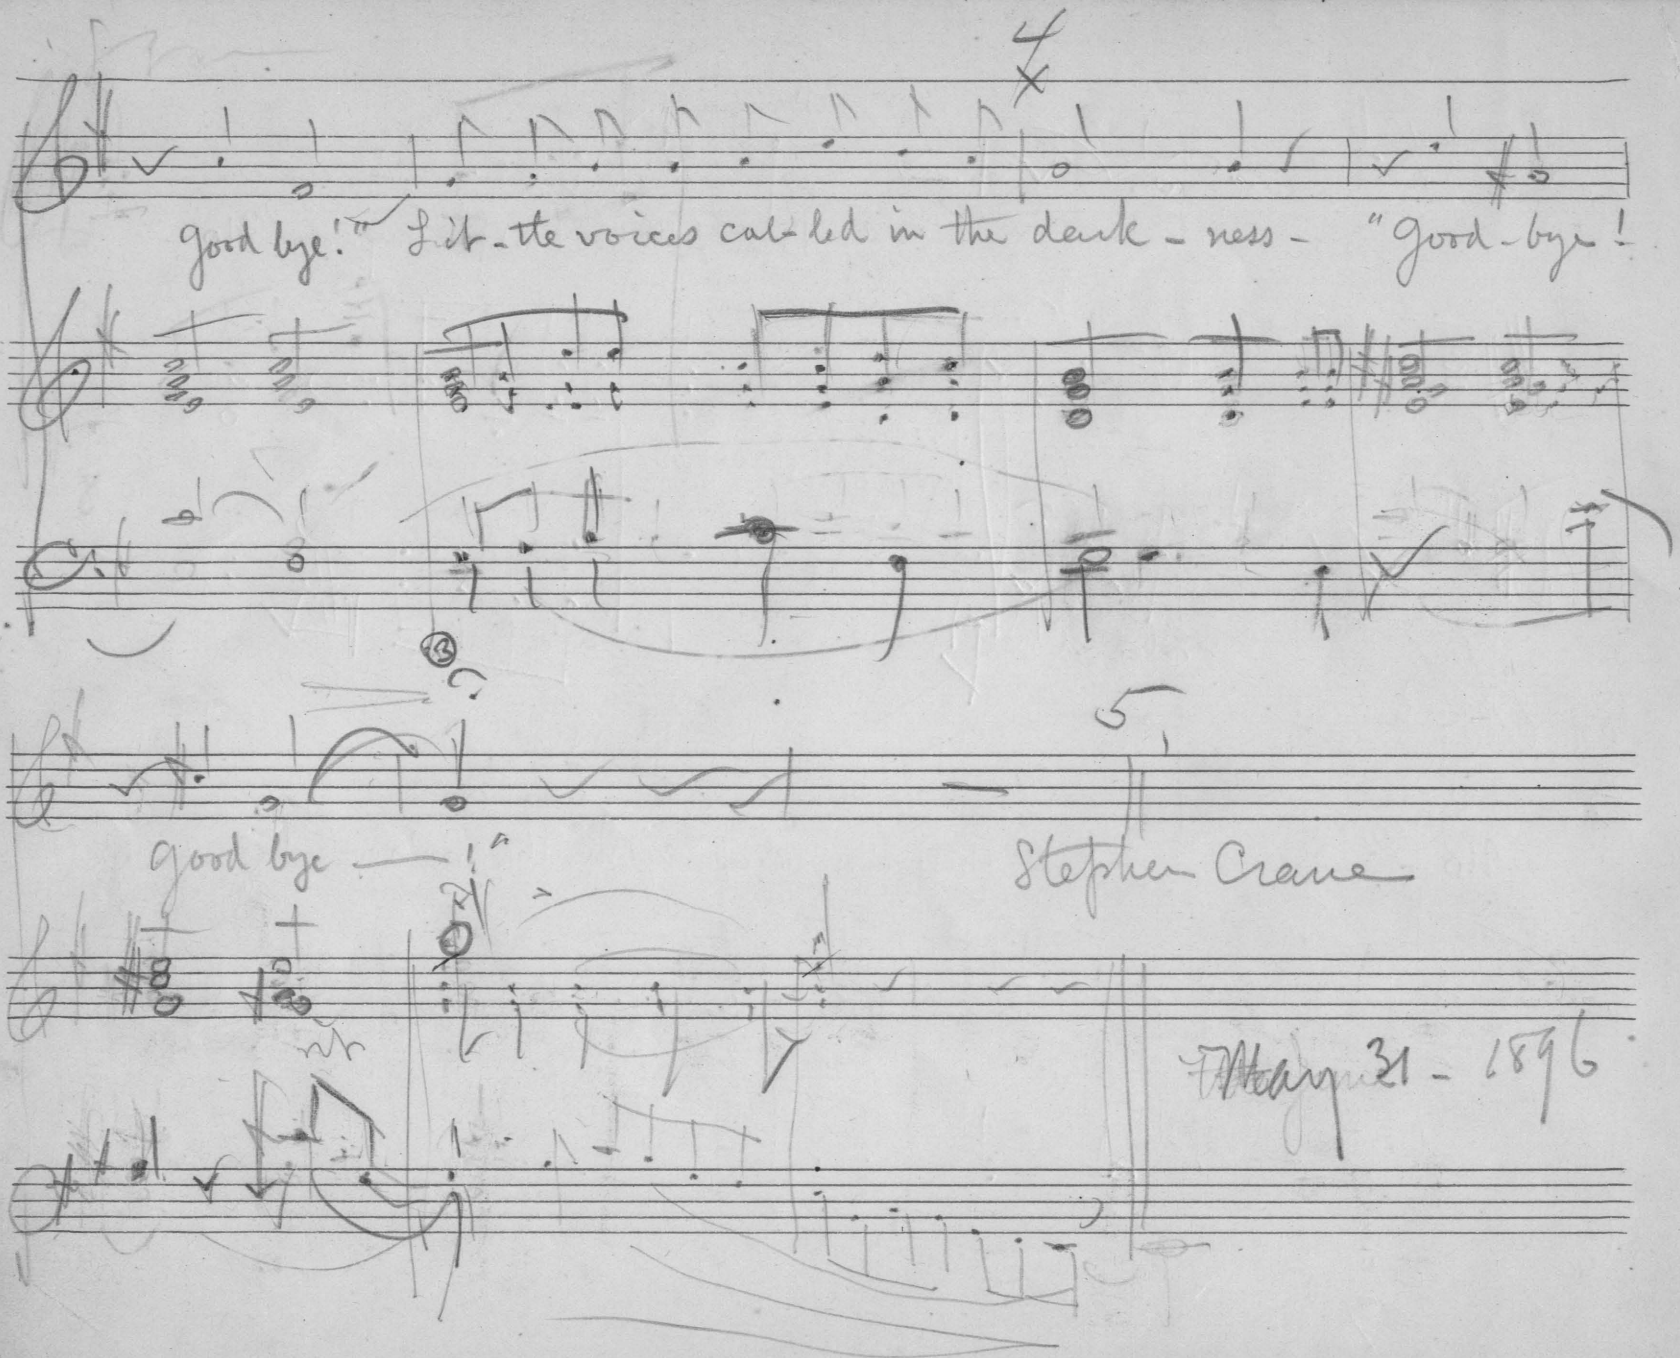
pro
6K



Sotto voce.
There came Whispers in the Winds
There came whisperings in the minds "good-bye! good bye!"
Lit-tle voices sal-led in the dark-ness "good-bye!

Good !
"
Then I stretched forth my arms. "No —
No —"
There came whispering in the minds
"Good-bye!



good bye!" Lit-tle voices cal-led in the dark-ness- "good-bye!
good bye—!"
Stephen Crane
May 31 - 1896

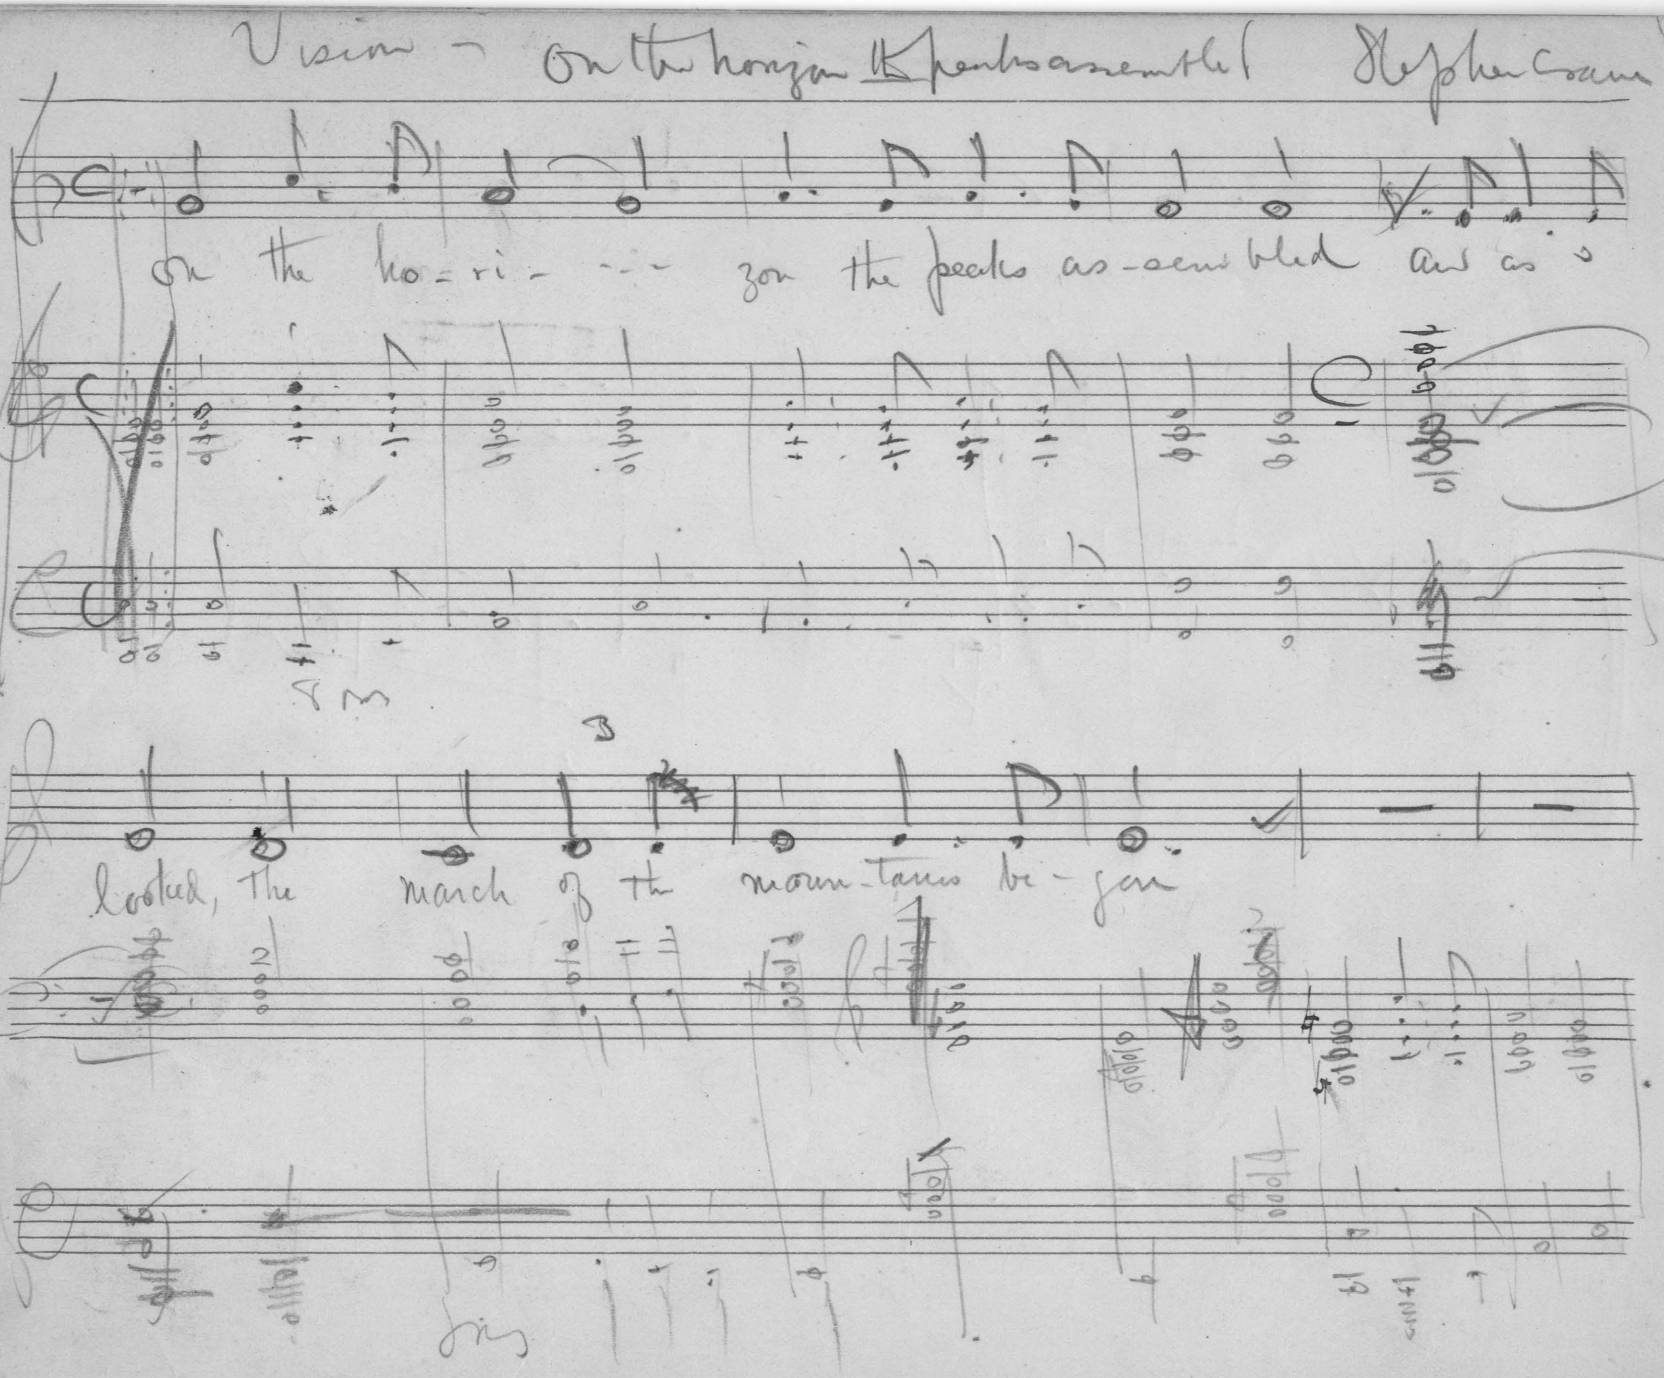
I Sunyata

II ~~Ygaa Gya Pata~~

III Sangsa

IV Darkness

V Vision



Vision – On the horizon (Ensemble) Stephen Crane
On the ho-ri- -- zon the peaks as-sem-bled and as looked, The march of the moun-tains be-gan

as they marched they sang:
"Aye, we come, we come —
May – July 1861.

Iron in the Darkness
Stephen Crane
I was in the dark-ness I could not see my hand nor the mis-ery of my heart

Then suddenly there was a great light ad lib.
Let me in to the darkness a few